Charter of Demand of Higher Education Wing

1. UGC regulation 2018 should be strictly implemented in toto within the stipulated time to ensure uniformity of standards of higher education across the country. Payment of Central assistance to the state government should be released only if they have adopted and implemented the scheme as a composite one.
2. The pre 2004 pension scheme should be revived and extended to all colleges and University teachers.
3. The age of superannuation for teachers should be 65 years in a uniform way throughout the country.
4. Regular and permanent appointment of teachers must be ensured. If any institution or state has more than 20% faculty position remaining vacant by the end of the year, their grant and recognition must be suspended.
5. Appointments on contract/adhoc basis should come to an immediate halt. Duly selected ad hoc teachers should be absorbed and regularised.
6. Professional training of teacher should be on regular and systematic basis.
7. Time bound career advancement scheme benefits should be provided to University and college teachers.
8. In service teachers should be exempted from doing Ph.D. course work.
9. Guidelines should be issued to the state governments that salary payment of aided institutions should be made through treasury.
10. Past service in any institution should be counted for the purpose of promotion.
11. Correct teacher student ratio must be enforced for all institutions of higher learning throughout the country.
12. Parity of salary structures, service conditions, promotional and retirement benefits of librarians, D.P.E.'s research associates and other equivalent staff should be maintained with that of teachers.
13. Non teaching supporting staff should be provided in adequate number so that teachers can concentrate on teaching and research only.
14. Independent autonomous regulatory commission for higher education consisting of eminent educationist should be formed at centre and state levels.
15. Nomenclatures of various teaching positions in colleges be made uniform throughout the country as Assistant Professors, Associate Professors and Professors on the lines of UGC recommendations.
